

Society in India : Structure and Change

COURSE FACILITATOR:
Dr. Parvindra Kumar

Introduction

- This course aims to educate students about social change and its theories & factors so that they will be in position to evaluate the dynamics of society.
- This will be helpful to understand the continuity and order of society.

Course Objectives

- To understand the concept of social movement, social change and its theories.
- To understand and explore various forms and patterns of social change.

Course Objectives

- To understand and explore the various factors of social change.
- To understand different processes of social change.
- To explore and evaluate the importance of social values in society.

Course Outcomes

- CO1: Understand features, patterns, theories of social change and causes and forms of social movement.
- CO2: learn about various forms of social change - social evolution, social progress and social development.

Course Outcomes

- CO3: Understand and explore different factors of social change in society.
- CO4: Understand and analyze important processes of social change in modern times.
- CO5: Understand and evaluate the concept of social values and its significance in society.